| Father in Heaven, if you should mark iniquities, who could stand? Truly, we have not lived as your word directs us, yet we ask that you would not rebuke us in your anger. Our sins have troubled our souls, so we ask that, for Christ’s sake, you would have mercy on us. Confident in the perfection for Christ’s sacrifice, we boldly come, asking for promised forgiveness. In our Savior’s name we pray, Amen. |                                                          |                       |              |

The offering is an act of thanksgiving and worship commanded by God. By giving our tithe, we demonstrate our dependence on the Lord, the maker and sustainer of all things.

From Greek doxa, (glory, splendor, grandeur) & logos, (word/speaking); short hymns of praise to God in response to His gifts to us..

The Old Testament reading designed to parallel the New Testament reading.

The Sermon is where we explore scripture together and corporately encounter Christ..
